Mountain Reservations Hosts Annual Travel Awards Ceremony at 38th Annual Mountain Travel Symposium

– Prizes and trophies honor top partner accomplishments and achievements –

Salt Lake City, Utah – March 28, 2013 – Mountain Reservations, a premier provider of ski and mountain vacations will host its 3rd annual Mountain Reservations Travel Awards Ceremony at the 38th Mountain Travel Symposium in Aspen Snowmass on April 8th, 2013. The week-long conference is the largest gathering of mountain travel professionals in North America. Mountain Reservations is once again hosting the awards to showcase the achievements of top-performing partner companies.

Each year Mountain Reservations honors the accomplishments of their partners throughout the previous ski season. This year trophies will be given out in categories including "Most Improved", "Rookie of the Year", "Best Phone Voice", "Most Social" and the "Million Dollar Sales Club". During the ceremony, the Mountain Reservations' executive team both acknowledges and rewards the innovations of partners who are essential to the company's success. The event pays tribute to more than two dozen Mountain Reservations partners, who receive the trophies, prizes and a Hawaiian getaway package.

"Our growth continues year after year and is largely dependent on the exceptional performance of our travel partners," said Kristen Cherry, Director of Market Management at Mountain Reservations. "Each year we want to show our appreciation and recognition by honoring them with cool prizes and vacation packages."
